

COVID-19 CULTURAL MENTAL WELLNESS COMMUNITY FUND

The Cultural Mental Wellness Community Fund is being introduced by the NunatuKavut Community Council (NCC) in response to the COVID-19 global pandemic. It is part of a series of urgent and short-term measures being undertaken by NCC to help ensure that members and communities have the support they need during this pandemic.

The purpose of this fund is to assist groups in NunatuKavut communities in celebrating Inuit culture while improving mental wellbeing. All projects or initiatives must demonstrate commitment to following the public health guidelines around COVID-19.

The application deadlines are Friday, May 1 and Friday, May 8. Other deadlines may be added as required.

Eligibility

Eligible applicants include any non-profit or community group in NunatuKavut seeking financial assistance for cultural mental wellness projects. This may include initiatives that are community-specific or region-wide.

The non-profit or community group can only apply one time for this fund.

Funding

Grants of up to $3,000 are available.

Application Process

Please submit completed applications by email to Dawn Corkum at dcorkum@nunatukavut.ca with the subject line "COVID-19 cultural mental wellness."

If you have any questions about this grant, please contact Dawn by telephone at (709) 896-0592.
