NUNACOR DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION Offers Condolences on the Passing of Mary Janet Hill

HAPPY VALLEY-GOOSE BAY, LABRADOR, March 24, 2023 – Nunacor Development Corporation CEO Andy Turnbull issued the following statement today on the recent passing of Mary Janet Hill.

“On behalf of the Nunacor Development Corporation, I extend condolences to the family, friends, and colleagues of Mary Janet Hill. Her passion and dedication to advancing the socioeconomic interests of the Innu people of Labrador can be a lesson to us all. She was a business leader and very well respected in her field.

To the Hill family, Innu Development Limited Partnership and the community of Sheshatshiu, please know we hold you all in our hearts and prayers.”

Nunacor Board Member and NCC President Todd Russell added, “Mary Janet Hill was a proud Innu woman, representing her people with dignity, respect and vision. I know I speak on behalf of all NunatuKavut Inuit when I say we are saddened to learn of her passing.”
