

Call for Expressions of Interest: NunatuKavut Gender-based Violence (GBV) Advisory Committee

The NunatuKavut Community Council (NCC) is seeking Expressions of Interest (EOI) to assist in strengthening our capacity to prevent and address Gender-based Violence (GBV) against women, girls, and 2SLGBTQQIA+ people, with a strong focus on community health and wellness.

The committee will give NunatuKavut Inuit an important voice around violence against Indigenous girls, women, and 2SLGBTQQIA+ people. It will provide advice to NCC on GBV issues, priorities and gaps, to help shape an advocacy strategy that advances community wellness in a holistic and gender-diverse approach. The committee is anticipated to start in April, 2024 and committee member terms will run for one year, with a possibility of extension.

GUIDELINES

- The successful committee members must have access to computer equipment, to participate in virtual meetings for the duration of their term on the committee.
- Any materials developed as part of this committee will be the property of NCC and remain with NCC staff.
- Any required travel will be compensated according to NCC rates.
- An honorarium will be provided as a token of appreciation for participation.

NCC welcomes expressions of interest from a range of individuals who are interested in providing representation for one or more of the following areas:

- Service providers in related area of focus.
- NunatuKavut Inuit who identify as 2SLGBTQQIA+.
- NunatuKavut Inuit with a lived experience of gender-based violence.
- NunatuKavut Elders/Knowledge Holders.
- NunatuKavut Inuit Youth.
- Family members, allies, and agents of change in preventing violence against women, girls, and 2SLGBTQQIA+ people.
